15 Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 5, Defendant MLB Advanced Media, L.P.
16 ("MLBAM") respectfully moves this Court for permission to file its Answer to Complaint,
17 Affirmative Defenses and Counterclaim (together with any attachments thereto) under seal.
18 Filing these documents under seal is justified because the public's right of access is outweighed
19 by the interests of the public and the parties in protecting the documents from public view.

20 Plaintiff RealNetworks, Inc. ("RealNetworks") filed a motion to file its Motion for 21 Preliminary Injunction and related pleadings under seal. By order dated March 26, 2004
22 ("Order"), this Court granted RealNetworks' motion, "subject to the submission of an agreed 23 proposed protective order by the parties within thirty days from the date of this order." Order at 24 1.

25 In addition to the Court's Order, the terms of the Streaming Media Services Agreement

1 between RealNetworks and MLBAM (the “2001 Agreement”) impose an obligation on the
2 parties “to communicate jointly and to coordinate statements regarding the MLBAM and
3 RealNetworks relationship,” and provide for confidential treatment of each party’s confidential
4 information.

5 In responding to RealNetworks’ pleadings, certain information necessary to adequately
6 respond to RealNetworks’ pleadings may be deemed confidential and relate to confidential
7 business information of the parties. The information contained in MLBAM’s responsive
8 pleading is necessary to fully and accurately present MLBAM’s answer, defenses, and 9 counterclaims against RealNetwork. The parties, however, may be adversely affected if such 10 information is disclosed to the public or to competitors of the parties.

11 In light of the Court’s Order, which also directs the parties to “submit a proposed 12 protective order to the Court within thirty days from the date of this Order,” MLBAM 13 respectfully requests that its documents described above be filed under seal, subject to the 14 submission of the proposed protective order.

15 A copy of the proposed order is filed with this motion.

16 DATED this 29th day of March, 2004.
